

Color Intensity

Shallow

Superficial or shallow emotions are those referring to mood or vague feelings with little driving power, i.e. paintings, modern art, artistically pleasing decorations, curtains, objects of art and desirable objects of daily use, such as automobiles. Also, references to feelings and moods, “...this makes me feel gay and happy....,” “... it makes me think of love....,” “the colors are tremendous....” reflect weak insincere emotionality.