Should I score Ag if card III is two people playing that old game where you control a lever to have your boxer knock the head off the other boxer? It sure sounds Ag but it is a game. In addition, this just occurred to me: I assumed COP because you are playing a game together, but is that correct if you are trying to knock someone's block, off.

Reply:

It is like a war game. COP/AG combinations suggest there may be something ambivalent or double-edged about interpersonal relationships, helping and hurting simultaneously. A sequence analysis might help elaborate or put it in context.
