

EMPATHETIC

Synonyms: compassionate, sympathetic, responsive, understanding

He has a rare level of understanding of other people.

His talent for quickly getting to the heart of a problem situation helps him devise unique solutions based on what would be best for all involved.

She possesses all the qualities of a good friend, including warmth, responsiveness and a listening ear.

Empathy is the ability to put oneself in another's shoes, and this writer has an abundance of it.

He is the kind of guy who makes himself available anytime a friend has a problem. It doesn't matter how much he may be suffering himself, he will put that aside to lend an ear to someone else.

A genuine and sincere empathy for others motivates her to immerse herself in their problems and needs.

There is a tendency for this individual to become so involved in the personal situations of others that he may end up over-identifying with them, losing something of himself in the process. He needs to remind himself to keep his emotional distance and take care to maintain a certain level of detachment.

Empathy makes him a good friend. People are impressed with his warmth and understanding.

The profound compassion she feels for other people makes her heart bleed when she witnesses some injustice or other.

Warm and responsive, he is genuinely interested in helping others solve their problems.

Although she responds with understanding and sympathy when a friend or colleague shares their problems, she has the inner strength to keep herself separate. She knows when it is appropriate to offer a helping hand and when to stay out of it.

Even when he can't do anything to alter a situation, he will provide a shoulder to lean on, or cry on, depending on what is needed.

He wants to do a good job because he really cares about helping other people and improving their lives, not just as a sop to his own vanity.