

H = 0

....hostility arising out of an intellectual aversion to others results in the development of no an disinterest in dealing with them.

....does not get along with other people.

....friction, anger, and disappointments are often encountered in dealing with people.

....ways of dealing with others are met with failure and frustration.

....has been mistreated by others.

....may have been abused emotionally and physically.

(Piotrowski 1979, p. 344)