

M-

≥1

...has strange thoughts about what to expect from their own experiences.

...the stability of their notions about what will happen when they engage with others is often challenged and uncertain.

(Meloy 1997, p. 308)

...their strange notions, lack of knowledge, and experience while engaging everyday contacts with others results in emotional and social disconnects which assure that not empathic ties occur.

(Gacono 1994, p. 168)
