

Plate VIII

Coat of Arms

Emblems

Insignias

(Associated with Animal Content)

Prestige drives compensate for the burdens of realizing that core personal inadequacies prompt people to react negatively.

Struggles facing up to the fact failure in many vital areas in life will happen.

Overweening personal ambition over rules consideration and compassion towards others.

Wanting to be recognized as special is important.

Ruthless reactions to confrontations happen.

(Lindner in Phillips & Smith 1963)